

Jasbir Nagi

Nagi started training in Savate in 2002. Since then, he has contributed to clubs across Great Britain, as a student and instructor, attaining moniteur status in 2013. He has worked on the GBSF committee since 2010. He works as an official in Boxe Française, and in Canne de Combat, regularly judging and refereeing at international competitions, including the World and European championships. He currently holds Gant Blanc, is a GBSF squad coach, and runs the Dorset Savate club. When not in, or around, the ring in some capacity, he can usually be found at a live music gig.
