

FISav Officials' Charter

General

1. Know the rules and regulations, respect and apply them
2. Be fair and impartial and clearly communicate decisions
3. Engage in training to have the knowledge and maintain skills necessary at the level of practice and development
4. Be prepared for each competition (optimal physical condition, punctuality, availability, appropriate attire and equipment)
5. Be and remain exemplary in all circumstances, in and outside of the sports arena
6. Be respectful of all participants in the competition (competitors, coaches, organizers, spectators, media, officials ...)
7. Refrain from all criticism or negative comments toward other referees or their organisation or its members, by any means whatsoever (oral, written, published article, twitter, forums, internet, blogs, websites social networks ...)
8. Behave in an irreproachable manner (do not drink alcohol or smoke whilst on duty, do not use illegal drugs, avoid inappropriate affinity with competitors ...)
9. Refrain from conflicts of interest (betting on the competition is forbidden, refuse any gift of inappropriate value and any undue payments.
10. Demonstrate a spirit of sportsmanship and promote the positive aspects of sport such as fair play.

Specific

1. Respect and ensure the respect of the ethics of Savate
2. Respect commitments
3. Make decisions impartially
4. Remain neutral in all circumstances
5. Have team spirit
6. Respect the team decisions and accept other opinions
7. Do not show emotions during a competition
8. Accept the comments and observations of the Official Delegates evaluating performance